Thanks to your generosity, we are up to date in our support for Yohanes Makelew, our Compassion International sponsored child in Indonesia. So far this year $240 has been sent to help provide Yohanes with an education, meals, health care and Christian nurture. (A new letter from him is posted on the bulletin board in the hallway.) This money was contributed by the youth group and the congregation through the collection box on the table by the sanctuary door. Because of world economic conditions, Compassion is asking us to raise the level of our monthly support by $8. Will you help us do that?
