The character of the Evangelical Covenant Church is expressed by our logo: at the center is the cross. Next is a circle – the symbol of our unity in Christ. Then four different people, joined together, reach out to the world in love. Find out more about the Covenant at www.covchurch.org

Guest Preacher Next Sunday Bob Sales

Robert “Bob” Sales was born in Washington DC and grew up in North Africa and Europe. He attended religious schools the entire time yet never knew God on a personal level. He firmly believed he was on his way to Heaven. Then one night in his home, at the age of 29, God revealed Himself as the living Savior he really only knew as a historical figure. His life has never been the same since.

Over the years he has served as Missions Director at First Assembly of God in Alexandria and at Christ Chapel in Woodbridge organizing and going on trips around the world. His last mission trip was to Albania where he worked with Campus Crusade for Christ and preached the Good News in the mountain villages that were predominantly Muslim.

In 2009 he published his first book: “How to Get to Heaven” in obedience to God’s direction in a vision. He is in the process of writing his second book: “Judgement Day – An Eyewitness Account” with a scheduled release date late 2010.

Since 2008 he has been sending out an e-mail Daily Devotional based on Oswald Chambers’ “My Utmost for His Highest” bringing out its relevance in today’s challenging circumstances.

A graduate of George Washington University with a BBS in International Business, Robert has his own business mentoring small and emergent businesses in the Federal market place. He is a leading expert in government acquisition, management, and team building. He has taught seminars around the country and has been a guest speaker at numerous conferences.

Robert and his wife Kimberly have six daughters and fourteen grandchildren. They live in Virginia.
